Street Committee Has Practically So Decided.

CLOPTON IMPROVEMENTS

Fire Commissioners Issue Building Permits-Olympia Club to Celebrate Fifth Anniversary-County Supervisors - Cantata.

No. 1102 Hull Street. }
It was practically decided by the Street Committee last night that a large amount of the appropriation to that committee would be spent in permanent improvements to Semmes and Stockton Streets. These two streets, it was conceded, were badly in need of improvement, especially the former, and it is quite certain that a fine gravel road-bed will be given each.

Representatives of manufacturing concerns on Fourteenth Street appeared before the committee to ask that something be done to the road-bed of that street between Ninth and Twelfth Streets, Fifteenth Street, with the view of b able to make recommendations when proper time comes. The committee proper time comes. The committee braces Messrs, Barrett, Ferguson and placed on file, with the suggestion that it be read at the next meeting.

A special meeting of the committee will be held in the next ten days or two weeks, at the suggestion of Mr. Barrett, at which time the public will be invited to appear before the committee to speak and make suggestions in reference to street improve rett, Hooker, Wakefield and Grissett. City Engineer Lipscomb was also present.

BUILDING PERMITS.

The fire commissioners met last night and granted a permit for the crection of a blacksmith shop at Seventh and Railroad Streets, a building at, Sevententh and Stockton Streets, the raising of the Louse and the addition thereto of a kitchen at Fourteenth and Perry Streets.

WATCH RECOVERED.

WATCH RESCOVERED. The watch lost by Miss Bettie Morrisett several days ago was recovered by her brother, Mr. Willie Morrisett, yesterday afternoon from a colored man named Dock Woolrich, who found it. Information was received by Mr. Morrisett from a friend of the finder, the latter saying he did not know where to take the watch.

A called meeting of the Olympia Club will be held at Olympia Itali, over Moore & Burke's, at Fifteenth and Hull Streets, to-morrow night to make arrangements for the celebration of the fifth anniver-sary of the club. The proposed summer outing will also be maped out.

JUNIOR CELEBRATION, Davis Council of Juniors celebrated the thirteenth anniversary last night, at which time Mr. E. W. Miner, of Richmond, delivered an address. Besides the members of the council there were many visitors from the other councils of Manchester and Richmond. This is one of the most prosperous councils in the city.

The entertainment last night was very enjoyable. Besides the speech-making, there was a splendid display of refreshments.

CONCERT AND CANTATA. Bainbridge-Street Baptist Church was crowded last night by an audience that Bainbridge-Street Baptist Church was crowded last night by an audience that most thoroughly enjoyed the concert and cantata given by the Grove-Avenua choir, consisting of Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Rowe, Mr. Tribbett and Mr. Crump, with Mr. Manly B. The House Committee on Schools and Colleges held a brief session yesterday marks, which were exceedingly interesting, Mr. De Courecy Thom, a prominent alumnus from Baltimore, Md., spoke briefly in advocacy of the bill, certain portions of which he sought to amend. No amondments were put on, however, and the bill was approved in executive session as it come from the Senate.

It incorporates the General Association, which it allows to create branch associations, It will likely pass the House.

When the several bills relating to the creation of an executive head for the University were reached they were, on motion of Mr. West, passed by, and fixed for final consideration on February 24th at 3 c'clock P. M.

Congressman Carter Glass, Hon. Eppa Hunton, Jr., and other members of the Board of Visitors were on hand to be heard, but did not desire to speak until the committee was ready to finally dispose of the matter. The chair stated that it was not the purpose of the committee to pass finally upon it until after the Campbell-Crawford investigation, and so it went over until the date named above.

neighborhood of 200 of the citizens of his two deputies, one of the supervis Commissioner of the Revenue and his deputy, the Commonwealth's attorney and clerk. The meeting referred to in the last issue which endorsed Mr. Baker's action, was presided over by the treasurer of the county, Dr. R. H. Situart, and was attended by a large number of farmers and merchants, and declares that nine-tenths of the citizens of Westmoreland approve Mr. Baker's and Senator Walker's position of the question. The committee reported the bill with the recommendation that it do not pass. Commissioner of the Revenue and his

Senator Barksdale will likely offer in the Senate to-day a resolution providing for the election of the new circuit judges by the Legislature at some early date. The judges were nominated some time ago by the caucus and later on their terms were fixed. Senator Barksdale thinks that while they do not take office until next January, they may as well be elected before the rush of business in the Lerislature becomes so great. the Legislature becomes so great.

The Senate Committee on Fish and Game met yesterday afterneon and agreed to report like game bills offered by Messrs, Christian, Leake, and Powers. The bills are now on the House calendar and will likely pass both houses with some slight modifications.
